Yearbook (Continuum)

Course No.: 8730

Prerequisite: Placement

Credit: 1.0 / Full Year

Fees:

Grades: 9, 10, 11, 12

Other: Extended Study Option

The Yearbook (Continuum) staff members are responsible for the publication of the school yearbook. Students do extensive interviewing and research to produce journalistically sound copy, captions and headlines. Using desktop publishing they arrange their work into attractive page designs, all adding to the development of a student-created, main theme. Students who apply for and are appointed to editorial positions at the discretion of the Faculty Advisor will receive Honors credit.

Fees:

Grades: 9, 10, 11, 12

Other: Extended Study Option

The School Newspaper (The Scratching Post) offers a workshop forum for students who are interested in developing and maintaining the highest standards of journalistic writing. It also provides an opportunity for students to develop leadership skills and perform a service to the school and community by producing a student newspaper on a consistent basis. Students learn to recognize news, plan an issue, interview, do research, develop photo features, and create layout and design. Desktop publishing tools such as Adobe Photoshop and Adobe InDesign are integral parts of this course. Some out of class work is needed. Students who apply for and are appointed to the Editor-in-Chief and Copy Editor positions, at the discretion of the Faculty Advisor, will receive Honors credit. A short application is available in the LST.
